

UNSPEAKABLE 2010

for

Following the sell-out success of the inaugural Unspeakable, comedy gets the silent treatment again in 2009! See the best of the best in physical comedy, including world-renowned Deaf comedian, Rob Roy, 2008 festival favourite, Sam Wills (The Boy with Tape on his Face) and master vaudevillian, The Birdmann, in this unique show that shatters all language barriers.

The Rob Roy Show – Deaf Man Walking, has toured in over 60 cities in 23 countries around the world. Don't miss your chance to see him perform in Australia alongside other masters of physical comedy in this show that is both Deaf and family friendly.

Sam Wills' debut in the 2008 MICF earned him a Best Newcomer nomination and he won the Groggy Squirrel's Reader's Choice Award. In 2009, Sam has already picked up Best Established Comedian at the Adelaide Fringe Festival.

The Birdmann is a man like no man with an ill-fitting suit, styling hair and fastidious humour having toured to 15 countries. The Vanguard of Vaudeville delivers unique acts of plastic bag-juggling, object balancing, escapology and nostril tea-drinking moments of magnificence.

With two very special guest MCs - Damian Callinan (SkitHouse, ABC774 and dual Barry Award nominee) at Frankston and a surprise for Gasworks.

Proceeds from this event will go to Vicdeaf (The Victorian Deaf Society) who are celebrating 125 years of service to Victoria's Deaf and hard of hearing community. Produced by Erin Davidson (Funny Tonne winner 2006) and proudly supported by Gasworks Arts Park and Frankston Arts Centre.

"This was an unusual and fascinating show with some of the funniest spans I've seen at this festival." The Groggy Squirrel, 2008

"Actions will always speak louder than words. Unspeakable speaks louder than any show I've seen so far." Arts Hub, 2009

"There should be less talk." Mother Teresa
